

AGEPI Expo

"AGEPI Expo" - supplement to the journal „Intellectus“.

"AGEPI Expo" is a publication devoted to the results of each edition of the International Specialized Exhibition "INFOINVENT". It inserts several interviews with participants in the country and from abroad in this forum of inventions. It reveals the mechanism of exploitation of intellectual property objects, provides businessmen with useful information on conclusion of assignment and license contracts, to implement the latest technical and scientific achievements into production.
